On Friday afternoon special cars were sent to Taftville and Occum and to Norwich Town and Yantie to convey the children of the schools in these disthe children of the schools in those si tricts to the armory. Several hundred children took advantage of the opportunity to see the greatest exhibit of its kind ever shown in Norwich and thor-oughly enjoyed the trip. One of the children, Orice Lavalee of Occum, ago eight years, doubly enjoyed the trip for the occasion marked her first trip on a trolley car during her short life. Friday evening the armoty was again filled with people who not only enjoyed viewing the exhibits but also were treated to a delightful entertainment. Miss Rosafina Peloquin delighted her audience with several selections.

Miss Eisle Kellar demonstrated her ability to operate the typewriter.

A new display Friday evening that attracted much admiring attention was that of Otto F. Ernet, florist, which was arranged in one of the company This was a beautiful weddin, scene with altar of palms and ferns and an able formed of white and yellow chrysanthemums. Mr. Ernst also displayed a new
